

A nation that continues year after year to spend more money on military defense than on programs of social uplift is approaching spiritual death. There is nothing except a tragic death wish to prevent us from reordering our priorities, so that the pursuit of peace will take precedence over the pursuit of war.

the cost of militarism in our communities

Friday, January 18, 2007
7:00-9:00PM

Beck Cultural Center
Dandridge Avenue • Knoxville, TN

commemorating the birth of Martin Luther King, Jr.
a community discussion on the economic,
moral and human costs of militarism panel presentation to be followed by moderated community discussion sponsored by the Oak Ridge Environmental Peace Alliance and The Race Relations Center of East Tennessee; St. Luke's AME Zion Church; Church of the Savior; Sisters of Mercy, Knoxville; Veterans for Peace; Amnesty International, UT chapter; The Glenmary Commission on Justice; Narrow Ridge Earth Literacy Center; The Beck Cultural Center; Peacemaking Committee of the Presbytery of East Tennessee;